

Salmon Summit 2025

Reconnecting Habitat, Restoring Rivers, Recovering Salmon

Logo by Paul Cline, Member of Lummi Nation

November 13, 2025

Four Points Hotel & Conference Center
Bellingham, WA

Evening Program

5:00 - 5:25pm Light Refreshments/Information Stations

5:25 - 5:30pm Welcome and Introduction

- Becky Peterson, WRIA 1 Lead Entity Coordinator

5:30 - 5:50pm An Indigenous Family's Connection with Salmon

- Paul Cline, Member of Lummi Nation and ESA Manager, Lummi Nation Natural Resources
- Ryawn Cline, Member of Nooksack Indian Tribe, Nooksack Indian Tribal Council and Interim General Manager

5:50 - 6:30pm Rapid-fire insights into salmon, collaboration, and the road to recovery.

- What the Numbers Say: Salmon Status in the Nooksack Basin
Devin Flawd, Stock Assessment Manager, Lummi Nation Natural Resources
- Collaboration Isn't Just a Meeting, Gary Stoyka, Natural Resources Program Manager, Whatcom County Public Works
- The Work of Recovery: Strategies for Salmon, Water and Land, Kelley Turner, Washington Restoration Program Manager, Lummi Nation Natural Resources Department
- A Challenging Path to Success, Treva Coe, Assistant Director/Habitat Program Manager, Nooksack Indian Tribe Natural Resources Department

6:30 - 7:00pm Networking/Information Stations

- Talk to the speakers
- Explore table displays and posters
- Thank our Salmon Summit Sponsors!